
As I'm not used to wearing high heels,
I sometimes can't decide whether
I to wear them or not when I go out with Mev.

Of course high heels are prettier but my feet might get really tired because we're not going to go by car.
Yeah, we're going to walk for about 30 or 40 minutes

Ah.

At that moment,...

...I had an idea.

But that day, I finally decided ta wear high heels because Mev and I hadn't been out on date for a while.

How about now? Do you think you can walk now?
Well, my feet are fine now but as soon as I start to walk again it will be painful again
Aa

We tried to walk back home again but...

The day that I wore high heels.

But on the way back home,...

...my feet seemed that they started to burn like they had caught fire

There was no problem at all while we were walking to the bar.

Finally, we choose to take c rest ot the bench on the street for a little while.

A while loter.

After my suggestion,
Mev replied to me.

Ha~ Do you remember that you gave me your shoes once when my shoes were broken on the street? Hehe

Shall I walk without my shoes on? Ah, but I don't want to walk on the dirty street without shoes, especially when I'm only wearing tights on my feet

...it scared me and I started to regret wearing high heels. Then, Mev asked me.

Kindly, Mev offered me his shoes.
